

“We were so pleased with the work that Finesse did on the exterior of the home, that there was no other choice when it came to our selection of builder to do the internal work.”

“They provided just absolutely everything that you could ever ask for, I would work with them again in a heartbeat!”

Renovations with Finesse have over 25 years' experience specialising in home renovations, from the traditional to the contemporary.

Our widely acclaimed renovations are the result of the dedication and teamwork of our designers, project managers and builders, and because we are registered Master Builders, we guarantee every project for a full 7 years after completion.

One of our project managers will oversee your home renovation from start to finish, dealing with everything that arises, from interior design recommendations to building consents. You needn't concern yourself with architect's technical language either, because your project manager will be fluent.

Our vast renovation experience means we have seen most scenarios before, so our initial assessments tend to be very accurate. If any changes do need to be made to the timetable or budget, regular project meetings ensure that you are kept fully informed.

We have a thorough multi-point checklist system that ensures every detail is accounted for and completed with the utmost care. We handpick only the best sub-contractors that meet our exacting standards.

Our clients always feel involved with the important decisions, while we deal with the stresses of the renovation process.

For a stress-free renovation carried out with the utmost skill and professionalism, call Renovations with Finesse today.
